With a solid background as a facilitator, trainer, and marketer, Cary joined JGUA ready to take on the task of business development. By joining an accomplished group of financial planning professionals, Cary's focus is to recruit, train and retain professional staff, as well as helping JGUA grow the core business. While currently heading up a team focusing on growth planning through our JGUA 2016 Strategic Plan, Cary is working to ensure that JGUA is well positioned to be a world-class financial management firm for many years to come.

Background

Prior to joining JGUA, Cary served as Marketing Director for the United Way of the Southern Tier and Deputy Director for the NYS Department of Labor Private Industry Council. Her vast background in training, business development and public relations coupled with strong leadership skills made her the ideal match for John G. Ullman & Associates, Inc.

Credentials

- Rochester Institute of Technology, MS, Human Resource Development
- Keuka College, BS, Education

Community Service

Cary has a long history of community service. She has served on the Board of Directors for Pathways, Inc., various United Way committees, SCT BOCES Advisory Council, Junior League of Williamsport, and fund request committee for the Greater Lycoming Community Foundation.
