With a solid background in the brokerage world, Jennifer joined JGUA with a skill set that could immediately add value to clients. While managing the Account Coordinator group, she is able to maintain the high quality of service we pride ourselves on while also working to bring JGUA up to the most current best practices. In addition to her Director of Client Accounting hat, Jen also serves as Chief Compliance Officer. In this capacity she assures that the firm is upholding the highest of standards set by the SEC as well as the extremely high standards established by the firm.
